

2023 KENNY BERG RESEARCH AND EDUCATION FUND

SUPPORTING THE INDUSTRY

AFIA's Kenny Berg Research and Education Fund financially supports funding of research, education and promotions for the further development of the liquid feed industry. Research data generated from this program significantly promotes the growth of the industry. The Kenny Berg Research and Education Fund has contributed over $120,000 toward research projects since its inception.

All presidents' club, executive club and pacesetter club contributions go directly to this fund, and contributors are recognized at the annual Liquid Feed Symposium.

Contact Paul Davis, Ph.D., at pdavis@afia.org or (703) 650-0146 for more information.
