64.5M TONS = amount of feed

98.4M U.S. BEEF CATTLE consumed in 2019\textsuperscript{1}

5.5-6.5:1
Growing cattle may eat anywhere from 5.5 lbs. to 6.5 lbs. of feed to gain 1 lb.\textsuperscript{2}

WHAT DO CATTLE EAT?\textsuperscript{1}

- Corn (57%)
- Dried Distillers Grains (21%)
- Other Processed Grain Byproducts (11%)
- Other (11%)

Average daily feed intake for cattle is a wide range & depends on multiple factors.

BEEF IS AN EXCELLENT SOURCE OF 14 KEY NUTRIENTS\textsuperscript{3} IN HUMAN DIETS:

- Iron
- Magnesium
- Niacin
- Phosphorus
- Potassium
- Protein
- Riboflavin
- Selenium
- Thiamine
- Vitamin B5
- Vitamin B6
- Vitamin B12
- Vitamin D
- Zinc

The top states for cattle on feed are: Texas, Nebraska, Kansas, Colorado & Iowa.\textsuperscript{1}

Last updated Sept. 2021